

NPG Scholarship Contest

Privacy Policy

Entry into this contest requires disclosure of certain information. We do not sell or trade this information to third parties. Participation in this contest is completely voluntary and you may choose whether or not to participate and therefore disclose this information. Information requested may include contact information (such as name and mailing address), and demographic information (such as zip code, educational institution, and age level). Contact information will be used to notify the winners, award prizes and for other purposes related to this contest (such as compiling lists of winners). Certain contact information (such as name and school) may be used in publicity about the contest and its winners. Since this year's contest involves a media advertisement, we may use your information in the course of publishing the ad. In addition, we may contact you in the future concerning events or efforts related to our charitable and educational goals (such as Earth Day celebrations). We may also use this information internally for evaluation and research, and may report aggregate results, without personally identifiable information, to others. You may opt out of further contacts from us by writing to us at the address on our website. This policy is effective February 1, 2009, and may be changed at any time; for information on our privacy policies in the future, please write to us at the address on our website.
