

Six Prizes ranging from $2,500 to $1,000

NPG Essay Scholarship Contest Application

www.NPG.org

Entries must be received by April 24, 2012

Entries postmarked prior to due date, but received after the deadline, will NOT be accepted

Winners will be announced on www.npg.org by July 13, 2012

NPG, a national membership organization devoted to population issues, invites students to compete in our Annual Scholarship Contest.

Without critical changes, U.S. population is projected to reach 438 million people in less than 40 years. Explain how this projected growth will negatively affect the United States socially, economically and environmentally. Submissions must be between 500 and 750 words.

Last Name: _____ First Name: _____

Permanent Street Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Phone (home): _____ Phone (cell): _____

E-mail: _____

Current School Name: _____

Current School Website: _____

Where will you be attending school in the fall of 2012*: _____

Fall 2012 School Web Site: _____

*You will need to provide evidence of current enrollment or acceptance for the Fall 2012 term prior to payment of the scholarship to the school.

I have read the rules of the NPG Scholarship Contest (see above) and hereby agree to them. I understand NPG is not responsible for late or lost essays. Entries will not be returned, and all entries become the property of NPG. All decisions are within the discretion of the NPG Scholarship judges and all decisions are final. Applicants grant NPG full rights to use their name and essay for promotional or other purposes. The attached essay is original, entirely my own work, and not offered for publication elsewhere.

Student's Signature: _____ Date: _____

Parent/Guardian Signature (if author under age 18) _____

Mail to: NPG Scholarship Contest • PO Box 1265 • Teaneck, NJ 07666